Fairfax County Offers “12 Ways of Giving”

If giving makes you feel good then Fairfax County Office of Public Private Partnerships has a way to feel great. For the second year the County has put together a collaborative of nonprofit partners that are in need of your gifts. These gifts which benefit 12 groups serving those in need in Fairfax County also have the benefit of a charitable donation and in many cases a gift in someone’s name; it’s a win-win this holiday season! The promotion runs through the month of December. More information can be found at www.fairfaxcountypartnerships.org.

The gifts include:

- Helping the ageing through Life Circle Alliance
- Participating in the “Gifts that Give Hope” Alternative Gift Fair for Fairfax County
- Donating a bench to a park in memory of a relative or friend through the Fairfax County Park Foundation
- Buying a book from Amazon to fulfill the Library Foundation’s Wish List
- Keeping Fairfax green by donating the gift of trees through Reforest Fairfax of the Fairfax County Restoration Project
- Giving the gift of Art to benefit incredible artists, actors, musicians, writers, film makers, storytellers from the Arts Council of Fairfax County
- Sharing a smile with a child by donating to Project Pearly Whites from the MCCP Foundation.
- Zipping Homelessness by offering help the Office to Prevent and End Homelessness
- Volunteering your time and become a mentor for BeFriend-A-Child
- Adopting a family for the Holidays through A Way Forward and donate a care package to those who need it most
